

A tropical beach scene at sunset. In the foreground, two wooden lounge chairs with blue cushions are positioned on the white sand. A large, light-colored beach umbrella stands behind them. The background features a clear blue sky transitioning to a warm orange glow from the setting sun, with palm trees and other beach umbrellas visible in the distance. The ocean is visible on the left side of the frame.

2020 Summer Packet - C

Due Wednesday September 9, 2020

Instructions----This assignment WILL be graded.

You will have 2 short stories to read. To read the story online, click the title to go to the webpage. Review each slide, carefully reading the instructions. On slides that require an answer a light colored tile has been placed. Click the tile and begin typing. Be sure to answer all questions fully, use evidence to support, and answer the entire prompt.

Most responses should be in a paragraph. You should fully answer the entire prompt and use evidence. Answers in slides 10-13 can be shorter, but complete (No responses should be on slide 9). These responses will be both a Reading and Writing grade. We will engage in a Fishbowl Class Discussion the first week of 20-21 school year.

The Fun They Had

Isaac Asimov

Click the title to read the story.

Use this space to jot down ideas, points, opinions, and answers you can bring up while in the Fishbowl to help answer this question:

Based on Asimov's description of school in the past and present, what are the challenges and advantages of each?

Use this space to write down EVIDENCE from the TEXT that helps support your ideas:

“ ”

Page #

“ ”

Page #

Question # 1

Use this space to jot down ideas, points, opinions, and answers you can bring up while in the Fishbowl to help answer this question:

What does Asimov's story about the FUTURE have to say about our world TODAY?

Use this space to write down EVIDENCE from the TEXT that helps support your ideas:

“ ”

Page #

“ ”

Page #

Question #2

All Summer In A Day

Ray Bradbury

Click the title to read the story.

Comprehension Questions

Describe what Venus looks like using details from the story.

Describe Margot's looks, actions, thoughts, and character traits using details from the story.

Comprehension Questions

Why do the children cover their ears when the sun comes out?

What do the students realize after the rain has begun again? How does that make them feel?

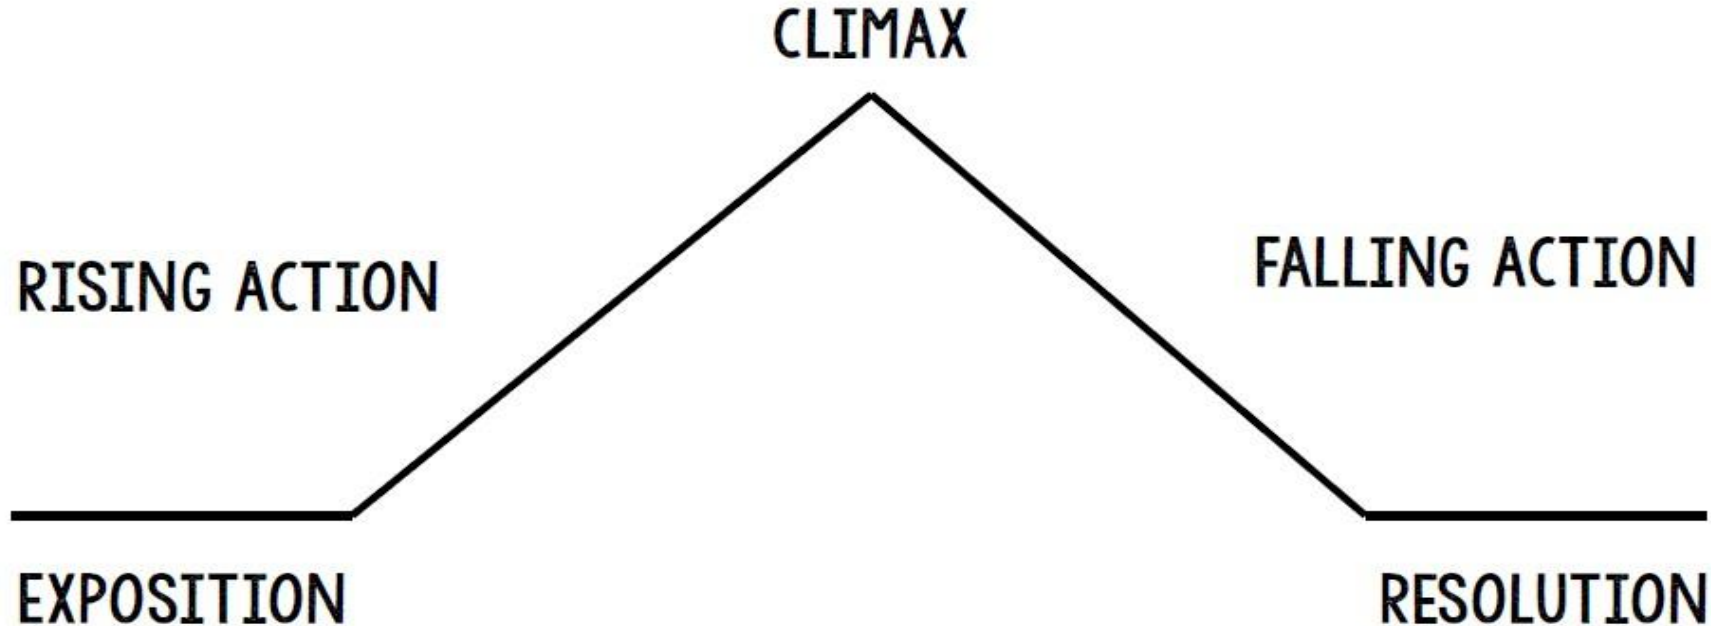

All Summer in a Day

BY: RAY BRADBURY

COMPLETE ON THE NEXT SLIDE

Plot: Fill in the plot diagram below using the events in "All Summer in a Day."

EXPOSITION:

RISING ACTION:

CLIMAX:

FALLING ACTION:

RESOLUTION:

Conflict: Fill in the following boxes relating to the conflict in "All Summer in a Day."

WHAT IS THE CONFLICT?

WHY DOES THIS CONFLICT OCCUR?

HOW IS THE CONFLICT RESOLVED?

Theme: Fill in the following boxes relating to the theme in “All in a Summer Day.” Remember, theme is the lesson or moral that can be learned from reading the story.

WHAT IS THE THEME?

WHAT IS THE THEME?

WHAT DO THE CHARACTERS SAY OR DO TO DEMONSTRATE THE THEME?

An empty, rounded rectangular box with a light orange fill and a thin black border. It is positioned on the left side of the bottom row.An empty, rounded rectangular box with a light green fill and a thin black border. It is positioned in the middle of the bottom row.An empty, rounded rectangular box with a light yellow fill and a thin black border. It is positioned on the right side of the bottom row.

Reflection Questions

Reread the paragraph beginning with “Margot stood apart.” What does the reader learn about Margot’s character? What does the author imply about Margot’s character?

How do you think Margot will act towards the students after she is out of the closet? How would you react if you were Margot in this situation?

